

FAN VOTE STRONG FOR THE CENTRAL

Three-Eye Given Two Ballots to 69 for Rival for Rock Island Territory.

JUDGES IN FIRST COUNT

Tearney Says He Will Withdraw Franchise if overs of Game Will Not Support Him.

The judges of the balloting in The Argus canvass to get the sentiment of the fans regarding the baseball league franchise is to be identified with the Central Association. The judges reported it: The Three-Eye League ..... 2 Central Association ..... 69. The judges are Henry Carse, Rev. F. R. Ruff, Franklin P. Welch and George Patton.

In each issue of The Argus, on the sports page, there is printed a blank ballot. Fans are invited to indicate a preference on this ballot and either leave it at The Argus office or mail it to the sporting editor of The Argus. You may sign your name to the ballot, but this is not obligatory. The only aim of The Argus is to get the sentiment of fandom.

Eleventh Hour Move.
Here is the situation: Rock Island today has a franchise in the Three-Eye League. It is the franchise that was held by Springfield and was transferred here by President Al Tearney to protect Rock Island as Three-Eye territory. It was an eleventh-hour move by Tearney when the National Association, at Omaha, was about to repeal the five-mile limit rule which keeps Rock Island as Three-Eye territory.

Two years ago Rock Island surrendered its Three-Eye franchise to the league, with no strings attached. Before this was done all bills were paid and the franchise went back to the league unincumbered, differing from those that have been switched about in the interim, as our good neighbor, Moline, discovered after playing a team for half a season under the impression that the franchise had been handed to the city by Tearney as a present.

Sentiment, as near as The Argus is able to get it, is in favor of Rock Island selecting its own company. There is no opposition to the Three-Eye league as an institution here. In fact, Rock Island has always felt a paternal interest in the league, having been one of its original members and sticking when other cities in after years gave up the ship. Rock Island is for clean baseball with clean men at the helm. It will stand for nothing else.

President Tearney has given his solemn promise, which is inscribed in the minutes of the National Association, that he will withdraw from Rock Island if he finds that the fans here do not want a franchise in his league. The directors of the Central Association are holding back awaiting a decision from Tearney. If the latter finds adverse sentiment here and keeps his word to place his team elsewhere the Central will immediately vote a berth to Rock Island.

All Should Vote.
Therefore fans are asked to vote

TITLE EEPENDING ON SUNDAY MATCH

Maroons and Cardinals Will Battle for Tri-City Light-weight Honors.

Although the Independents do not play Sunday, lovers of football are promised some excellent sport at the city park on that afternoon when the Rock Island Maroons and the Davenport Cardinals will meet to determine the tri-city light-weight championship. Both teams are claimants and a fine exhibition is anticipated.

The locals have a fast squad. John Robb is quarterback and those who have witnessed his handling of the eleven declare he is due for some brilliant playing Sunday. His men perform well behind him and if the visitors win, they will have to go some.

The Cardinals have had a good season. The warriors are in excellent condition and promise to prove worthy opponents for the Maroons. A curtain raiser will be played at 2:30 and 3 o'clock the big match will start.

their choice of league. If all of the fans ballot it might indicate to the friends of both leagues which carries the most weight in the city.

The Argus wishes it understood that no extra copies will be run for the purpose of adding a plan to plump for either league.
